Christmas Lights

A meeting to form a new committee to look after Bunclody's Christmas Lights will take place on Tuesday October 2nd at 8.00 p.m. in Redmond's, Main Street. It is important that all business interests are represented at this meeting to ensure Bunclody will have Christmas Lights this year. The outgoing committee of Peter Steemers and Colin Cahill have stepped down after many years of service alongside Charlie Meyler, the late Denny Finn, and the late Paddy Moorhead who all gave time and efforts for upwards of 25 years. Please make sure to put this date in your diary so Bunclody will have an excellent Christmas Lights display this year.

Eucharistic Adoration:
Every Monday from 9.30am - 8.00pm
Tuesday to Friday 7:30 - 8:30am,
Saturday 9:30 - 10:30am.
No Adoration on Bank Holidays

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

This week we focus attention on a new Parish Pastoral Council. The function of the Pastoral Council is to continue the world of Christ and the building of his kingdom in the local area of the church. "A Parish Pastoral Council is a faith filled leadership group through which priests and people work together as co-responsible partners in furthering the mission of Christ in their own parish." A Parish Pastoral Council is not about the upkeep of parish buildings or maintaining the plant. It is about the mission of the church in the local place. Its concerns will be education in the faith, the quality of liturgy and worship, the support of family life, the formation of our young people, an adequate response to the needs of the elderly and the poor, and building a community where all members support and encourage each other on the journey of Christian life.

The hope would be that ten to twelve people would volunteer to be members of the Pastoral Council. It would be great if young and energetic people would play their part on the Council. If a group of people volunteer their gifts and skills for the parish community it will show to all that there is a real interest in the welfare of the parish, which belongs to all the people of faith in our community. The Parish belongs to the people. It is not the priest's property. All priests, at best, are birds of passage entrusted for a limited time to ministry in a particular place. A Pastoral Council gives a real opportunity for priest and people to work together in the interests of the parish. They discern, they plan, they decide what should be done, and they implement decisions and review them from time to time. The present is a most important for strong lay involvement in this parish. Within the next few years, there will be only one priest in this parish. It is not the prime reason for lay involvement in the parish. We are called by baptism to play our part in the mission of Jesus.
